

Travel in England

I left on training with other people and with the help of the school in England, at the Hotel Restaurant Thatcher in Guildford. The hotel is large , spacious and warm , the staff with whom we work is warm, friendly and welcoming .

Customs in England are not the same as in France . In England, the steering wheel is on the right , while in France it is on the left. Breakfast is different, the food is composed of scrambled eggs, beans with tomato sauce, bacon, mushrooms , potato pancakes , bread , jam and butter. I did the service for banquets and for the Christmas party . After I was in the kitchen, preparing fish and chips, chicken curry , club sandwich , Christmas pudding, cheesecake... They can receive weddings, reunions, baptisms and other celebrations. They do club bar, restaurant, afternoon tea. Breakfast time is from 6.45am to 10am, Lunch time is from 12.30pm to 2.00pm and dinner time is from 6.30pm to 9.30pm. I was in London and I saw Big Ben, Eye of London, M&M's world and I went shopping in Covent Garden. I walked several times in Guildford for shopping.

This one-month internship allowed me to improve myself in understanding the language and motivate me to continue my studies and maybe have the chance to go back when my studies are finished .
