

	French Diplomas	British Equivalents	Age of the students	Objectives of the work placement abroad	Complementary details
Period 1 Four weeks from 25 / 11 / 2019 to 20 / 12 / 2019	BTS Hôtellerie Restauration	Higher National Diploma In Catering and Hotel Management (second year)	from 19 to 22	The training session is centered on services and/or cooking, and language as these students have followed complementary courses in professional English. (professional skills and language competences will be assessed by the tutor)	These students are not paid during the training session.
	Baccalauréat Professionnel (service /cuisine)	National Vocational Qualification in cookery and services NHVQ Level 2	from 16 to 19	The training session is centered on services and/or cooking, and language. (professional skills and language competences will be assessed by the tutor)	These students are not paid during the training session.
Period 2 Four weeks from 09 / 03 / 2020 to 03 / 04 / 2020	Baccalauréat Technologique Hôtellerie (mention européenne)	BTEC Extended Diploma in Catering and Hospitality	from 17 to 19	The training session is centered on services and/or cooking, and language as these students have followed complementary courses in professional English. (professional skills and language competences will be assessed by the tutor)	These students are not paid during the training session.
Period 3 Twelve weeks from 11 / 05 / 2020 to 31 / 07 / 2020	BTS Hôtellerie Restauration 1ère année	Higher National Diploma in Catering and Hotel Management (first year)	from 18 to 21	The work placement is centered on services and/or cooking and/or hospitality. (professional skills will be assessed by the tutor as part of the students' curriculum and diploma)	These students are paid during the work-placement according the agreement between the school and establishment which is signed before the placement.

Contacts:

b.ebroussard@orange.fr
laurent.cosseron@ac-rouen.fr